A determination to succeed has landed Tracy Stone a top job with leading interior space solutions company Spaceway.

Ms Stone, from Southampton, joins Romsey-based Spaceway as financial and commercial controller and is set to play an important role in the future development of the business.

She brings to the post considerable experience and expertise in accounting, having most recently acted as company accountant for Radisson Seven Seas Cruises.

Ms Stone started her career as a bookkeeper, but a thirst for learning coupled with a determination to progress professionally quickly brought about success and promotion to senior positions.

"Spaceway is in the middle of an extremely exciting phase in its development," she says, "and I very much look forward to playing my part."

Away from the office Ms Stone, who has two children, enjoys keep fit and swimming.

Note to Editors:

Spaceway is one of the leading providers of integrated interior space solutions for private sector businesses and public organisations.

The company recognises that the effective and efficient use of space is a critical success factor for businesses, contributing directly not only to competitiveness but also to the morale and motivation of a workforce.

Through the company's unique partnering approach, Spaceway aims to co-develop, design and implement the most innovative yet cost effective solution for each project regardless of its size. Whether it's a total redesign, or a need to increase the amount of usable space in a particular area, Spaceway has the experience and expertise to ensure the promised design concept is translated into reality - on time, to budget and with minimal disruption to business operations.
